ORDER

Petitioner prays for an interim direction to the respondents to grant permission to the petitioner to do the rebate sales during Onam season. Petitioner relies on Ext.P5 order also.

2. I heard learned Government Pleader also. Government Pleader submits that in order to grant permission, the petitioner has to move an application before the first respondent through the concerned Inspector and upon moving the same, case of the petitioner will be considered and orders passed thereon. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has actually moved an application. But now a fresh application will be moved.

In such circumstances, there will be an interim direction that if the petitioner moves a proper application for conducting rebate sale during Onam season through the Inspector, the first respondent will consider and pass appropriate orders thereon in accordance with law at the earliest.

(K.M. JOSEPH, JUDGE)
